Any such harassment is a violation of federal and State anti-discrimination laws and will not be tolerated by the Borough of Fair Haven. This policy applies to all employees and volunteers as well as to any individuals who may come in contact with employees and volunteers. Reprisals against anyone who makes a complaint under this policy will not be tolerated and violators of the policy will be subject to discipline, up to and including termination, and may be subject to any other liability authorized under applicable law.

6. Suggesting or implying that failure to accept a request for a date or sex would result in an adverse employment consequence with respect to any employment practice such as performance evaluation or promotional opportunity; or
7. Continuing to engage in certain behaviors of a sexual nature after an objection has been raised by the target of such inappropriate behavior.

Any volunteer found to have violated any portion or portions of this policy may be subject to appropriate administrative and/or disciplinary action which may include, but which shall not be limited to: referral for training, referral for counseling, written or verbal reprimand, suspension, reassignment, demotion or termination of volunteer position. Specifically, volunteers are encouraged to utilize the attached Discrimination Complaint Processing Form.

All volunteers are expected to cooperate with investigations undertaken pursuant to this section. Failure to cooperate in an investigation may result in administrative and/or disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Supervisor Responsibilities – Supervisors shall make every effort to maintain a work environment that is free from any form of prohibited discrimination/harassment. Supervisors shall immediately refer allegations of prohibited discrimination/harassment to the Borough of Fair Haven’s Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action Officer, or any other individual designated by the Borough of Fair Haven to receive complaints of workplace discrimination/harassment. A supervisor’s failure to comply with these requirements may result in administrative and/or disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

Additionally, all complaints and investigations shall be handled, to the extent possible, in a manner that will protect the privacy interests of those involved. To the extent practical and appropriate under the circumstances, confidentiality shall be maintained throughout the investigatory process. In the course of an investigation, it may be necessary to discuss the claims with the person(s) against whom the complaint was filed and other persons who may have relevant knowledge or who have a legitimate need to know about the matter.

This provision shall apply to the day-to-day operations of all the Borough of Fair Haven's information and technology equipment, as well as mobile or portable units. For purposes of this policy, a social network is defined as a site that uses internet services to allow individuals to construct a profile within that system, define a list of others users with whom they share some connection, and view and access their list of connections and those made by others within that system. The type of network and its design vary from site to site. Examples of the types of internet based social networking activities include: blogging, networking, photo sharing, video sharing, microblogging, podcasting, as well as posting comments on the sites. The absence of, or lack of explicit reference to a specific site or activity does not limit the extent of the application of this provision.

The use of the internet and social networking sites, including but not limited to Snapchat, Facebook, and Twitter, is a popular activity; however, volunteers must be mindful of the negative impact of inappropriate or unauthorized postings upon the Borough of Fair Haven and its relationship with the community. This provision identifies prohibited activities by volunteers on the internet where posted information is accessible to members of the general public, including, but not limited to, public postings on social networking sites.

Specifically, the Borough of Fair Haven reserves the right to investigate postings, private or public, that violate workplace rules, such as the prohibition of sexual harassment and other discriminatory conduct, where such postings lawfully are made available to the Borough of Fair Haven by other volunteers or third parties. Volunteers should use common sense in all communications, particularly on a website or social networking site accessible to anyone. If you would not be comfortable with your supervisor, coworkers, or the management team reading your words, you should not write them.

Be advised that volunteers can be disciplined for commentary, content, or images that are defamatory, pornographic, proprietary, harassing, libelous, or that can create a hostile work environment. You can also be sued by agency employees or any individual who views your commentary, content, or images as defamatory, pornographic, proprietary, harassing, libelous or creating a hostile work environment. What you say or post on your site or what is said or posted on your site by others could potentially be grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination. However, nothing in this social networking policy is designed to interfere with, restrain, or prevent social media communications during non-working hours by those engaging in protected concerted activities regarding wages, hours, or other terms and conditions of employment pursuant to the New Jersey Employer-Employee Relations Act or to prevent communications which are protected by the First Amendment freedom of speech clause, unless such communications are made as part of the volunteers' official job duties.

IV. DRUG- AND ALCOHOL-FREE WORKPLACE POLICY

The possession or use of unlawful drugs and the abuse of alcohol pose a threat to the health and safety of all employees and volunteers. Specifically, the manufacturing, distribution, dispensing, and/or use of alcohol or unlawful drugs on the Borough of Fair Haven's premises, or during work hours, by volunteers is strictly prohibited.
