

Mayor Halpern's Request for VOLUNTEERS

Beautification Advisory Committee

As part of the Mayor's strategy to further enhance and beautify Fair Haven, the Borough of Fair Haven is looking for volunteers interested in joining the Mayor's 2023 Beautification Advisory Committee. The sole focus of this committee will be to improve the overall aesthetics of Fair Haven in a manner that is budget neutral, by finding value add opportunities to make this an even better place to live and work. The Borough is seeking volunteers that may have relevant experience in this category, or who are interested to give back to their community. Likely time commitment is a monthly meeting with the potential for additional time as projects warrant. Estimated volunteers needed - 7 ppl

Fair Haven Day 2023

As part of our post pandemic mission to bring all events back to our community, the Mayor is seeking volunteers interested in planning Fair Haven Day 2023. This event will take place in June of 2023. The Borough is seeking volunteers that may have relevant experience in planning events, have participated in this event in the past, or who are interested to give back to their community. Likely time commitment is a weekly/bi-weekly Zoom call with the potential for additional time as assignments warrant. Time commitment will intensify as we get closer to the event. Estimated volunteers needed - 7 ppl

Leaf and Brush Task Force

As part of the Mayor's strategy to find ways to improve our many municipal services, the Borough of Fair Haven is looking for volunteers to join a Leaf and Brush Task Force. The sole purpose of this task force will be to review and consider the current leaf and brush schedule and procedures, conduct a financial analysis, and identify and suggest improvements to the Governing Body and Borough Staff. Likely time commitment is a monthly meeting with the potential for additional time as projects warrant. Estimated volunteers needed - 5 ppl

Grant Committee

As part of the Mayor's strategy to find ways to preserve and enhance our community while maintaining or lowering our tax rate, the Borough of Fair Haven is looking for volunteers interested in joining a Grant Committee. The sole purpose of this committee will be to work with Borough staff and various commissions and committees to identify opportunities to secure private, county, state, and federal funds to support local initiatives. Likely time commitment is a monthly meeting with the potential for additional time as projects warrant. Estimated volunteers needed - 5 to 7 ppl
